Acadia Youth Festival 2013 to take place in the province of Newfoundland and Labrador

St. John's, NL - October 4, 2013 - Franco -Jeunes Newfoundland and Labrador ( FJTNL ) is proud to announce the arrival of the Acadia Youth Festival to the province of Newfoundland and Labrador. The Acadia Youth Festival is an event that aims to bring together Acadian and Francophone youth from all the Atlantic provinces to participate in artistic, sporting, and leadership activities.

This event is made possible through partnerships between Franco -Jeunes and organizations such as the Provincial Youth Council of Nova Scotia , Acadian Youth of Prince Edward Island, the Federation of Young Francophones in New Brunswick and support the National Society of Acadia , St. Charles ( Maine ) and the Témiscouata region .

Franco-Jeunes is responsible for programming this year and will ensure that the 2013's Festival has a Newfoundland and Labrador flavour. The Festival will be held from November 8 to 11 and will take place at École Sainte -Anne in Mainland . We have decided to take this opportunity to share the culture of our province with all participants .

The festival is an opportunity to offer unique activities and invite young people to explore the traditions of the region. On the agenda for the weekend you will find the traditional dance, Gaelic football, accordion ... If you would like to take part in this experience , we are accepting registrations until Thursday, October 10.

To keep you informed, we have created a Facebook page: www.facebook.com/FJA2013 , you 'll find all the information about the festival : registration, general information , transportation, activities ...
