Francophone travel guide holding photography contest

St. John's — The Réseau de développement économique et d'employabilité de Terre-Neuve-et-Labrador (RDÉE TNL) the economic arm of the Fédération des francophones de Terre-Neuve et du Labrador, is inviting people to take part in a photography contest for the 2009-2010 French Language Travel Guide for Newfoundland and Labrador and Saint-Pierre et Miquelon.

People 18 years of age and older are invited to send in digital photographs of the province for a chance to be published in the guide, as well as cash prizes of $400, $100 and $50.

The contest form, details and rules are available on the Francophone Newfoundland and Labrador web portal at www.francoctl.ca/concours-photos-2008. The contest runs until noon Oct. 6. The winning names will be announced on Oct. 17, 2008.
