Songwriter in Residence Program -

Dawson City

Applications are being accepted until 11:59pm on October 15th.

The Dawson City Music Festival is excited to launch the application process for our 2024 Songwriter in Residence program. In partnership with the Klondike Institute of Art & Culture, North Klondyke Highway Music Society, and Parks Canada, the program provides a songwriter with time, space, and resources to research, develop, and produce new songs – or to rework and refine existing material.

Participants are invited to spend the entire month of January in Dawson City, living in a Gold Rush-era house that includes two studio spaces. The program is a rare opportunity to discover the magic of a Northern winter and to immerse yourself into the singular culture of our town.

In addition to housing and studio space, DCMF provides return travel for the selected artist (within Canada), a professional fee for a concert performed during the residency, audio equipment, a sound-proof rehearsal space, and additional resources available through our community partners!

Kelsey Arsenault's Debut Album

"Gallery Walls" to be Released October 15, 2023

NL based singer-songwriter Kelsey Arsenault is delighted to announce the release of her debut album "Gallery Walls" which will be celebrated at Bannerman Brewing Co. on October 15th and 16th, 2023. After a sold out first night, Kelsey has gratefully added a second show to mark the creation of her long awaited full-length album.

'Gallery Walls' is a collection of original music that explores ideas of contentment, love, and overcast weather. Kelsey has weaved these themes throughout 8 original tracks and hopes something in them connects with something in you. With thought-provoking, authentic lyrics, Kelsey is notably the first woman of her hometown of Ferryland to release an album of all original music.

Kelsey's collection is inspired by the idea that there are no answers; only stories. The songs ponder on ways that experiences we hold dear may serve to paint the unique canvas of our lives. You can listen to "Gallery Walls" on all major streaming platforms on October 8th. There are still tickets remaining for night 2 of her upcoming album release, October 16th at Bannerman Brewing Co. in St. John's. Physical copies of the CD will be available at the release and the night features special guest Katie Barbour!
